ENGLAND IN THE RIGHT.

The New York Tribune has not been noted in the past for a leaning towards England. On the contrary, it has been much affected with Anglophobia. During the recent Fenian troubles it took a strong position against English intercats and patted the disaffected Irishmen on the back. When the Alabama claims were under discussion it screamed for war; and when Blaine, as Garfield's Secretary of State, attempted to upset the Bulwer-Lytton treaty, it shouted for the "Monroe doctrine" and declared that the English must be booted off the American continent, "bag and baggage," as Gladstone once asserted the Turks ought to driven out of Europe. But the Afghan difficulty has given the Tribune an opportunity to speak a good word for England and her interests in the east. It takes most decided ground in hostility to Russia's course. It can find no excuse for the policy of the Czar and boldly and unreservedly asserts that Russia is in the wrong and England in the right. This declaration, coming from an unfriendly critic of Great Britain, is worth quoting, as showing the drift of American sentiment at this important crisis. When the enemies of England admit that her course is just, the subjects of that great empire can, with the utmost confidence, maintain her claims. The Tribune says:

Several correspondents ask us whether Americans ought to sympathize with Russia or England in the war now impending. There is only one way in which to answer this question, and that is to find out which side is in the right. Prepossession and prejudices in favor of or against either of the rivals for supremacy in Central Asia ought to be laid aside. There is a moral order in the affairs of nations which determines whether war is an unprovoked aggression on one side and a just and necessary measure of defence on the other. As a question of morality, we have no hesitation in declaring that American sympathies should be enlisted on the English side—and not because it is the English side, and ours is a branch of the English-speaking race; but because the English are in the right. In considering this subject it is not necessary to decide whether England has played the part of the strong robber in India, or whether Russia has been acting like a ruffianly freebooter among the Khanates of the steppes. Since the dawn of the race the law of superior force or civilization has been inexorable. The conquest of India and the persistent advance of Russia across the Kirghiz levels to Samarcand and from the Caspian to Merv and Sarakhs have the same justification as the occupation of the red men's hunting-grounds by the English race in America. The aggressiveness of superior civilization has triumphed all the way from Orenberg to Calcutta. If the European rivals are to meet face to face in Western Afghanistan, it is because each has been powerless to avert its own destiny. Each has been swayed by tendencies which it could not resist. There they stand pitted against each other, and the question of moral responsibility for the outbreak of war cannot be settled by a comparison of the results of British rule in India and of the Russian conquest of Turkestan. On abstract principles the Russians have the same right or license to occupy Western Afghanistan which they exercised in reducing Khiva and storming Geok Tepe. There can be no greater immorality in invading the Ameer's dominions than there was in subjugating the country to the Akhals; and their title to Penjdeh and Herat, if these towns are permanently occupied, probably would be as good as the British title to Peshawur and Quetta. The crucial questions to be decided are, first, whether the Russians are not guilty of breach of faith in claiming territory which they have repeatedly admitted does not belong to them; and, secondly, whether they have not wantonly provoked a war and declined to submit the points at issue to pacific arbitration. On the first point the evidence is very clear. When M. De Giers in 1882 proposed to have the Russian frontier defined, he conceded that all the places recently occupied by Gen. Komoroff belonged to the Ameer. In March, 1884, he repudiated a military map in which Penjdeh was placed north of the frontier; and even as late as November, 1884, the official representative of his government, Col. Alkhanoff, acknowledged that the town was under Afghan jurisdiction. These and other concessions made since the capture of Geok Tepe show that the Russians have repeatedly recognized the territory now claimed either as theirs on ethnographical principles or as fairly debatable.

On the second point, M. Lessar, Prof. Martens and Mme. Novikoff have joined issue with the British government. They affirm that the 'Afghan title to Penjdeh was disputed, that Sir Peter Lumsden had authority to assign it to Russia, that the Afghans by occupying it in force compelled the Russians to seize Pulsi-Khatum and Zulfikar, and that the boundary commission would have begun and ended its work and a pacific solution have been reached, if it had not been for this appropriation of debatable territory. The evidence does not, however, bear out this statement of the case. Penjdeh was occupied June 16, 1884, before the proposals for a joint commission were accepted and at least two months before the members were named. From that date the British government have made continuous efforts to settle all questions at issue peaceably. Sir Peter Lumsden and his surveyors have been on the ground in readiness to consult the Russian commissioners, who have never joined them. A diplomatic truce was proposed from London and determined efforts were put forth to refer all matters in dispute to arbitration. These pacific overtures have been met in a hostile spirit at St. Petersburg. By military concentration, stealthy advances, diplomatic dissimulation and wanton aggression, the Czar has set his face irrevocably against peace and forced on a devastating war. For these reasons Russia must be adjudged to be in the wrong; England in the right.

THE RAILWAY CHARGES.

Some time ago The Colonist gave space to a letter from Mr. A. Onderdonk on the subject of the railway freight rates. In that letter Mr. Onderdonk announced an important reduction in the rates charged on flour and coal oil; and promised if at any time it should seem to the contractors that it would be to their interest to carry freight at "extremely low rates," they would do so. We regret very much that in the opinion of the contractors the time for fulfilling that promise has not yet arrived: and that the people of the interior continue to groan beneath the heavy burthen of railway charges. Some large shippers have returned to steamers and bull-teams for the transportation of their goods and have discarded the railway altogether. When steamboats and bull teams carry freight at lower rates than a railway there must be something wrong with the railway. The wrong in this instance consists in heavy overcharges by the contractors which are breaking the financial backs of the people. Our object in writing to-day is to remind Mr. Onderdonk of his pledge and to ask him if the time has not arrived to reduce his tariff of charges on all articles carried over the road to a point where people may patronize him and live? Perhaps it would not be right to ask Mr. Onderdonk to adopt an "extremely low rate;" but he ought certainly to meet his patrons half way.

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCHES TO THE COLONIST.

THE NORTHWEST REBELLION.

Preparations for the Battle at Batouche.

Terrible Depredations by the Indians.

The Whole Indian Population on the War Path.

(Exclusive to The Colonist.)

WINNIPEG, Manitoba, May 7.—A wild rumor here to-night that Middleton's force had had a severe battle with the rebels at Batouche induced great excitement. The rumor, however, has been pronounced entirely baseless. It is not known that Middleton has yet moved from his camp at South Gabriel's.

Advices from Clarke's Crossing say the steamer Northcote will be strengthened to-day and her vulnerable parts rendered bullet proof. She will go down stream simultaneously with the troops and attack Batouche from the river.

Edmonton advices say the region north and east of there is full of hostiles. In fact, all Indians west of Battleford are in war paint. Settlers have all fled. John Walkinshaw and Albert Harkness, both from Ontario, were killed by Big Bear's band over a week ago. Their wives and the wives of the two missionaries are prisoners. All four women are being frightfully maltreated. Scouts from the northeast say that Col. Otter will have a fearful time of it. Poundmaker, Little Child and all other chiefs are on the war path. A number of half breeds are directing them. Major Steel was to send word back when he reached Edmonton, but nothing has been heard from him. There is a perfect panic in the Eleanor district, and scores of homesteads have been burned.

Unveiling the Bust of the Poet Coleridge.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, May 7.—Previous to the ceremony of unveiling the bust of Coleridge a preliminary gathering was held in the Chapter House. Besides the Lord Chief Justice Coleridge and Baron Houghton there were present Lord Aberdeen, Canon Farrar, Robt. Browning, Prof. Black and the whole Coleridge family, including the grandson and granddaughter of the poet, many members of the house of commons, noblemen, bishops, deacons and a large number of Americans were also in attendance. Dean Bradley and Mr. Lowell entered the Chapter House arm-in arm. The dean made a short speech. Mr. Lowell said: "This is neither the time nor place to speak of Coleridge's conduct to himself, his family or the world. He left behind him a great name; let those who are blameless cast the first stone at one who might have been better had he possessed these business faculties which make man respectable. He left us such a legacy as only genius—and genius not always—can leave. (Cheers.) Lord Coleridge returned thanks on behalf of the family. The assemblage then went to the poet's corner and Mr. Lowell formally unveiled the statue, which bears the simple inscription, "Samuel Taylor Coleridge."

RUSSIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 7.—Col. Zakejewski, who was with Col. Ahkhanoff during the Russian movement preceding and attending the battle of Penjdeh, has reached St. Petersburg with a full report of Russia's case, and has departed for Gatschina to deliver his report to the Czar. He says the inhabitants of Penjdeh are well disposed towards the Russians.

A Real Estate Dealer Shot in San Francisco.

His Assailant Attempts Suicide by Strychnine.

Wintry Weather in Minnesota.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—This afternoon Charles Ashton, real estate broker, was shot in his office by Captain J. L. Egan. Two shots were fired, both taking effect in Ashton's left side. As soon as he had done the shooting Egan entered a neighboring office and with a drawn revolver kept back the police until he had swallowed a dose of strychnine. Both men were taken to the city hospital, where the poison was pumped out of Egan and Ashton's wounds were dressed. The seriousness of the latter's wounds is not yet ascertained. Egan is completely recovered. The shooting grew out of what is known as the Dashaway Association steal. The association about a year ago sold property belonging to that institution and divided the proceeds among themselves. Ashton, a member, opposed this sale, claiming that the property was held by the association only as a public trust. He has brought several suits for injunction against the other members, but each time was beaten. His continued opposition enraged Egan, who participated in the division of the Dashaway property. In an interview he said, "I could not stand it any longer; I had to shoot him."

NORTHWESTERN STATES.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 7.—A snow storm is general throughout the northwest. There is no great damage to vegetation as it is not far enough advanced to suffer from severity. Ice is an inch thick at Yankton, Dakota. Fruit buds are frozen. There is an inch of snow at Fargo. Wind is 4 miles per hour. Thermometer 21° above zero.

YESTERDAY'S DISPATCHES.

Denial that the Afghan Policy is a Failure.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, May 7.—Edmund Fitzmaurice, under foreign secretary, replying this afternoon in the house of commons to Gibson, conservative member for Dublin university, stated that General Ridgeway, with Captain Yates and others, would remain in charge of the Afghan boundary commission, now that Sir Peter Lumsden is coming to London. The instructions sent to Sir Peter Lumsden, Lord Edmund continued, do not cancel his appointment. He has not been summoned to London to advise the government about the frontier boundary commission. An escort will remain with General Ridgeway, who will carry on the work of the commission.

LONDON, May 7.—Granville, in the house of lords this afternoon, replying to a motion by the opposition for production by the government of papers in the Russian controvery, used the following language: "I do not believe that if England was going to wage war against Russia, we should wage it at a disadvantage, and with every advantage in favor of Russia." Lord Granville denied that the government's military policy had been a failure and denied also that Russia would go to Herat. The motion for the production of the papers was then withdrawn.

LONDON, May 7.—Thomas Sexton, home rule member of parliament from the county of Sligo, Ireland, has placed on the notice paper of the house of commons a question as to whether the English government has interfered with the appointment of Mr. Kiely, U. S. minister to Austria.

William Hall, first Earl of Dudley, is dead. He was 68 years of age. Earl Dudley was a liberal conservative.

Consols opened at 98 13 16, and at 1:30 p. m had advanced to 98⅞. At 2 p. m. they stood at 98 12 16 for both money and account.

FRANCE.

PARIS, May 7.—The subject of proposed international control of the Suez canal is being discussed to-day by the International Suez canal commission. German, Austrian and Russian delegates favor an international control. English and Italian delegates oppose it.

INDIA.

LONDON, May 7.—Advices from India state that the telegraph line is now completed to a point 120 miles beyond Askabad. There is an apparent lull in Russian preparations for war. The Afghan troops along the Murghab, not having received any pay for a long time, are greatly demoralized.

AFGHANISTAN.

TEHERAN, May 7.—Advices from Sarakhs state that a small force of Russians with four guns now occupy Penjdeh. The same advices contain a statement that the Russians have completely won over the Sarikh Turcomans.

CENTRAL AMERICA.

COLON, May 7.—The two rebel leaders, Portazal and Cocobolo, who advised and assisted Prestun in burning the city and who have been held prisoners in Galena, were delivered yesterday morning to Gen. Reyes, commander in chief of the Colombian forces, by Capt. Kane. A court-martial was then held by Gen. Reyes and the rebellious pirates were sentenced to death. No delay occurred in executing the sentence of the court, and in the afternoon the condemned were taken to the middle of the ruins which they were instrumental in making, and hanged in presence of thousands of persons, who had assembled to witness the enforcement of the law.

A Suicide and its Sequel.

BERLIN, April 28.—The sequel to a sensational story of the past has made its appearance in a birth notice copied into the morning papers. Two years ago Professor von Putlitz, who had recently married a daughter of Count Flemming, shot himself, and left a letter saying that he was the victim of an "American duel," in which lots are drawn and the unlucky one has to kill himself. His opponent, he stated, was a young Hebrew barrister. The anti Semitic feeling was very strong at the time, and every effort was made to find the Jew referred to, but without success. While searching his papers the father of the dead man found a letter which established the criminal intimacy of his son's young wife with Legations-Councillor von Heyking, one of her husband's most intimate friends. This came to Prince Bismarck's ears, and Heyking was requested to send in his resignation. This he did, and he and the widow Putlitz both disappeared from society. The following newspaper announcement forms the sequel:—"Herr von Heyking and Frau Elizabeth, née Countess Flemming, in Florence, have been rejoiced in the birth of a child."

A WARNING.

Death and Disease by Wholesale in a Dirty Town.

A Wilkesbarre, Pa., dispatch says: An epidemic resembling typhoid fever is raging with terrible fatal effect in Plymouth, three miles from here. There are upwards of six hundred cases. Thirteen deaths occurred on Friday, fifteen yesterday, and six additional deaths were reported to-day. Nine funerals were held to-day, and the whole town appears to be in mourning. Physicians are powerless. Business is practically suspended, except at drug stores and undertaking establishments. The disease is due to the bad sanitary condition of the town, which has neither sewers nor gutters. The borough council met last night when the cause of the pestilence was discussed, and it was decided to clean the streets, alleys and back yards immediately.

STAGE ROBBERIES IN WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

A Cunning Chinaman Saves His Money.

SPOKANE FALLS, May 5.—Both stages running between Rathdrum and Fort Cœur d'Alene were stopped by highwaymen between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. There are two stages that leave the railroad depot at Rathdrum for Cœur d'Alene City every afternoon, after the arrival of the west-bound train; one that is known as the regular line and the other as the opposition. At the usual hour yesterday the regular stage, carrying the mail and Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express matter, pulled out of Rathdrum, carrying two passengers, a white man, Charles Hanthro, and a Chinaman. When the stage arrived within three or four miles of Post Cœur d'Alene, where the road runs through the timber, two masked men, armed with revolvers, stopped the vehicle and ordered the passengers to dismount, form in line and hold up their hands, an invitation they responded to with alacrity. One of the robbers went through the passengers and the stage, while the other stood guard with a six-shooter in each hand. The driver was not interfered with. Mr. Hanthro was relieved of $17, a watch and chain, and a revolver. The Chinaman intentionally fell down during the excitement, and threw his money, $84, in the grass, which was all recovered as soon as the robbers departed. Wells Fargo's express box was split open with a hatchet and only two packages stolen. One of them was a bundle of Oregonians, and the other a three pound package, the contents of which were not known. After cleaning out the stage the robbers disappeared, and the vehicle continued its journey. In a short time the opposition stage came along with four passengers, when the highwaymen covered the driver with shotguns and compelled the passengers to form in line, and while one kept them covered the other went through them, taking in all about $200, two watches and other valuables. As to-day is pay-day for the troops at the post, it is generally thought that the robbery was committed in the hope of getting the paymaster's money, they no doubt supposing that a portion of the amount at least might come by express.

Sydney Smith on War.

If three men, writes Sydney Smith, were to have their legs and arms broken, and were to remain all night exposed to the inclemency of the weather, the whole country would be in a state of the most dreadful agitation. Look at the wholesale deaths on a field of battle, ten acres covered with dead, and half-dead and dying; and the shrieks of many thousand human beings. There is more of misery inflicted on mankind by one year of war than by all the civil peculations and aggressions of a century. Yet it is a state into which the mass of mankind rush with the greatest avidity, hailing official murderers in scarlet, gold and cocks, feathers as the greatest and most glorious of human creatures. It is the business of every wise and good man to set himself against this passion for military glory, which really seems the most fruitful source of human misery.

THE YOSEMITE.—The steamer Yosemite, which has been moored near the Custom House all winter, has recently received a thorough overhauling, and is now in No. 1 shape. On Monday next she will be placed on the New Westminster route. The time of sailing has been changed from that date to 12 noon instead of 7 a. m. as formerly. This will enable passengers to make quick connection with the railway at Port Hammond, and no doubt the extra nap in the morning will be thoroughly appreciated. Capt. John Irving will command the Yosemite.

NAVAL.—The steel man-of-war Howe was launched at Pembroke, Wales, April 29. This new addition to the navy carries ten guns and has a crew of 440 men. The Howe is a twin screw steel-armor plated barbette ship of 9700 tons burden, and 7500 horse power engines. Secretary Whitney and John Roach have agreed that the U. S. warship Dolphin shall have another trip before her final acceptance by the government. The trial will take place in the Sound, and will be a six hour run.

CHANGES.—The steamer Otter will be taken off the Burrard Inlet route next week, and the steamer Western Slope will take her place under command of Capt. Meyer. Mr. E. H. Dickinson, formerly in the C. P. N. offices, will assume the duties of purser.

LARGE FREIGHT.—The steamer Princess Louise to-day takes up a very large freight for mainland points. For A. Onderdonk there are 2000 mats of rice and 400 sacks of blacksmith coal, ex Queen of the Pacific; 350 boxes of tin are billed to the Richmond cannery, and a large lot of general merchandise for various consignees.

The railway company's steamer Skuzzy, Captain Keiphoff, with a full cargo of liquor aboard. No passengers. Passed Boston Bar at 6:30 p. m. May 2d, downward bound for the Gulf of Georgia. Cowichan Notes.

A number of roads are being located in the district, one up the Koasailah valley, and to interior points generally, to meet the requirements of the large number of settlers that have lately gone in, and are taking up locations. Quite a number have located a considerable distance up the Cowichan river.

The crops generally are looking well and apparently have not been the least affected by the late drouth. The fruit crop promises to be a large yield.

Railway work is progressing favorably, Messrs. Bell & Patterson having recently received a large plant and a number of fine horses. The work is being rapidly prosecuted.

STEAM SEALING SCHOONER.—The small screw schooner Clyde is just about ready to start for the northern waters to engage in seal fishing. She is a prettily-built boat of thirty tons register, well arranged for the business to be engaged in, and is commanded by Capt. J. Blake. The engines are rotary marine of a new pattern, and the speed attained will be from eight to ten knots per hour. On Wednesday next she will leave for Queen Charlotte Islands, whne the sealing boats will be ready. The staunch little craft was built by Mr. J. Caldwell, for Mr. H. R. Troup, the wood-work being entirely of Douglas pine. She is a credit to her builder and owner.

The treatment we are receiving is shamefnl.

ACCIDENT.—Wednesday morning a miner named A. Maloney was severely injured by a fall from the roof in his stall at the No. 1 Esplanade shaft. It is feared that he is seriously injured in the spine and back, as his legs are partially paralyzed. The left arm is badly broken in two places, and the leg just above the knee is deeply cut.—Free Press.

THE MILITIA.—It was stated at the meeting of the defence committee yesterday that Major Dupont—a wise, efficient and able officer—had resigned; but the statement was afterwards contradicted.

THE TRANSFER COMPANY'S STABLES.

A Thoroughly Equipped and Modern Establishment.

The extensive stables for the Victoria Transfer Company, facing on Broughton and Courtenay streets, are about completed and will be ready for occupation the latter part of next week. They are composed of two buildings 90x57 feet, 2¾ stories in height, and are most complete, compact and convenient for the purposes intended. The main entrance is on Broughton street immediately at the foot of Broad.

On the right are several offices to be occupied by the British Columbia Express Co., extending 30 feet in depth. In these is built a large vault, 6x6 feet, by 8 feet in the clear, furnished with double brick walls and iron fire-proof doors.

To the left are the offices of the Transfer Company. The main room is intended for a carriage house, with harness rooms at side. Immediately above the offices are ten sleeping apartments for the use of employés. The balance of the first floor is also intended for carriage room, the vehicles being hoisted by a large elevator in the centre of the floor. The attic will be utilized as a store room for condemned plant, etc.

Between the two buildings is a space of 15 feet with Portland cement floor sloping to ends. This will be devoted to washing purposes, the water draining into the street sewers.

The entrance to the second building, the stable proper, is from Courtenay street. The ground floor is altogether filled with stalls for horses, there being a large passage-way in the centre and rows of ten stalls on each side, at each end being six box stalls for fancy stock. The stalls other than box are arranged with lifting doors to allow of horses being fed without entering the stalls. Grain is brought from the upper floor by hoppers into a box at end of passage way between the stalls. Feeding stock is thus rendered quick and easy. The accommodation is for about 100 horses.

The upper floor is partly devoted to stalls for horses, there being 33, reached by runways at either side. The floors of these stalls are caulked like the deck of a ship and sloped so that all refuse matter will drain to gutters at the end, and thence to street sewers. They are also arranged for feeding similar to those on the ground floor. The balance of the flat is used as a storehouse for hay and grain, the feed being lifted by rope and tackle from outside. There is a repair shop located on this floor, provided with requisite tools for repairing vehicles. The upper floors of the buildings are connected by a gangway for conveying vehicles to and from either.

The company is under the general management of Mr. S. Tingley, Mr Frank S. Barnard being president, and Mr. A. Henderson superintendent of the stables.

The cost of the buildings complete will be in the neighbourhood of $10,000, and have been built by day labor under the superintendence of Mr. C. T. Penwell. They are built entirely of Douglas pine, the outside walls and roof being coated with fire-proof paint.

Meeting of the Victoria Defence Committee.

The Victoria defence committee met yesterday afternoon. His Worship Mayor Rithet presided, Mr. J. D. Robinson acted as secretary. There were also present Col. Holmes, Capt. Croasdaile, Hon. S. Duck, Mr. E. Harrison, Mr. C. Booth, Mr. E. C. Johnson, Couns. Grant and Braden, Mr. R. Offerhaus, Mr. D. R. Harris, Mr. J. Fell, Mr. T. Gowen, Mr. J. R. Anderson and Mr. D. W. Higgins

After some remarks a motion to adjourn sine die was not seconded and a resolution to proceed to business was carried unanimously.

Correspondence from a pensioner of the British army, now at Chemainus, offering his services; and from a gentleman at San Francisco offering to rifle cannon and mount them and submit a new system of fortifications, was read.

The mayor read two schemes for defence and Mr. E. C. Johnson moved that both schemes be submitted to a committee for revision.

Mr. Higgins seconded and the motion was carried.

A lengthy discussion arose as to the cause of lukewarmness on the part of young men in joining the artillery.

One speaker said that dissatisfaction with the commanding officer was the cause.

Another denied that such was the reason.

In reply to a question, Col. Holmes said that no arms could be issued unless to enrolled militiamen, except in case of the formation of a home guard, when a departure from the rule might be made.

Mr. Croasdaile moved that the mayor be authorized to telegraph to the minister of militia to obtain permission to use the arms and to drill a militia company.

The motion, which was seconded by Mr. C. Booth, was carried.

Messrs. Croasdaile, Harrison and Grant were appointed to draft a scheme for defence and the plans submitted were referred to those gentlemen.

The meeting then adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

WILY CHINESE.—A number of cabins are being constructed immediately in the rear of Kwong Lee's cabins and adjoining the Commercial hotel. These were commenced the day after the publishing of the new fire limits by-law, and as it requires seven days' publication before its provisions came in force, the cunning celestial may erect his fire traps without becoming amenable to the by-law.

ISLAND RAILWAY.—The work is being rapidly pushed forward by Messrs. Bell, Larkin & Patterson, the contractors for the northern section. A short branch line is being made from the main line at Chemainus to the wharves of Messrs. Croft & Angus, where the rails, locomotives and supplies will be landed.

TWIN OAK FARM SALE.—Dufour & Co. will hold an important sale at Twin Oak Farm, Cedar Hill district, to-morrow, at 2 p. m. The property includes all the farming implements, buggy, live stock, crops, furniture, etc.

YORK & LENZ.—This well known and successful dry goods house has dissolved, Mr. Jos. York going home to England with his family to reside henceforth. The business will be continued by Mr. M. Lenz at the present premises, Government street.

The Chinese Regulation Act.

Circulars were issued yesterday to the Chinese collectors recently appointed under the provisions of the "Chinese Regulation Act, 1884," instructing them to proceed at once in enforcing the act. This provides that every Chinese resident of the province not a British subject, shall contribute the to the provincial treasury each year for the privilege of being allowed to live in this province. Any Chinese found in the province not in possession of a receipt of having paid the $10 tax will be subject to a fine not exceeding $40. Employers of Chinese are compelled to furnish a list of those in their employ, and in each case of default are subject to a fine not exceeding $100 or two months imprisonment. The collector may seize goods of Chinese in default of their not paying the license. Employers will also retain license while Chinese are in his service. Toll gate collectors are instructed to demand that such license be shown before allowing them to pass.

Chinese are required to pay $15 for a

and any found mining gold or other precious metals without a license are subject to a fine not exceeding $40.

The use of opium is prohibited except for the purposes of medicine and surgery and a penalty not exceeding $100 is imposed for every infraction of this section of the act.

Section 25 provides that it will be unlawful to occupy as a dwelling any room unless there is at least for each occupant. Any person who lets or occupies contrary to this provision will be subject to a penalty not exceeding $50.

From the above it will be seen that we have a most stringent Chinese regulation act, and if its provisions are properly carried out it will go a long way toward preventing the incoming of any more celestials, and will also dampen the ambition of those already here, and probably induce large numbers of them to flee the country.

The bill was passed 18th February, 1884, its provisions to come into force one year from that date. Its proper enforcement will determine the fact that our government and people are in their efforts to counteract the evils that the Chinese exercise in the advancement of the province. It will also add a snug sum to the provincial coffers, there being fully 10,000 in the country. At $10 per head it means $100,000.

Interior Notes.

(Inland Sentinel.)

Mr. G. B. Wright, Officer Kirkup and others were among the passengers last trip down. Mr. W. has been ailing somewhat, and came partly for his health. A difficulty having arisen at the Columbia in consequence of the officer occupying Capt. Steele's place declining to acknowledge the provincial authorities, Mr. Kirkup returned for instructions, etc. Three Dominion officials at Farwell and vicinity are unable to control the "free and easy" liquor traffic.

Died at the residence of his son Joseph, east of Kamloops, on the 27th inst., James Todd, at a ripe old age, having been born in Northumberland, England, in 1800. He came to Canada in '31, and resided for many years in the county of Hastings, and as two of his sons had come to this province in early days, upon the death of his wife, the now deceased arrived in British Columbia in '74 and has resided with his son Joseph nearly ever since.

Reported Lumsden Resigned in Disgust.

Russia Still Preparing for War.

LONDON, May 6.—A dispatch from Simla to Reuter's Telegram Company says that Sir Peter Lumsden has resigned as British Afghan Boundary Commissioner, because of his inability to agree with the policy of the home government.

LONDON, May 6.—Lord Churchill addressing a Conservative meeting tonight protested against the commissioner of the frontier delimination being removed to London to be dealt with by the imbeciles of the Foreign Office. Russia, he said, has always objected to the presence of Sir Peter Lumsden and now the government had gratified Russia by recalling General Lumsden. It was time for the Tories to endeavor to bring about a change in the advisors of the crown by refusing supplies.

COPENHAGEN, May 6.—The King of Denmark has informed Russia that he is willing to act as arbitrator if he is so requested by England.

LONDON, May 6.—The Daily News is authorized to deny that Russia has stipulated that England shall not occupy Port Hamilton. The News believes that Russia has offered England positive assurances that she has no intention of taking Herat.

ST PETERSBURG, May 6.—There is no appearance here of any abatement in the warlike preparations The mobilizing of the rifle batallions in Finland continues.

Colonel Ridgeway will take command of the British boundary commission in place of Sir Peter Lumsden, and Captain Gate will be second in command.

The latest official intelligence is that two British gunboats will be stationed at Port Hamilton for the purpose of watching British interests and to anticipate any attempt of foreign powers to occupy the island.

EGYPT.

SUAKIM, May 6.—Lord Wolseley is slightly indisposed. It is believed here that Osman Digma is again collecting an army, but owing to scarcity of food at his command he cannot become sufficiently formidable to call for a British expedition against him.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—Over one million and a quarter feet of lumber will be required for the construction of Peter Donahue's new building, corner of First and Mission streets.

Local fire insurance stocks are quite dull as three of the companies passed their dividends for the quarter ending March 31st.

Twenty vessels are now engaged to load wheat, with an aggregate carrying capacity of 45,000 tons. At this time last year San Francisco had vessels aggregating 18,000 in port under engagement for wheat. There is now 76,000 tons of disengaged tonnage in port against 121,000 tons a year ago, and 170,000 tons on the way or engaged to come against 175,000 tons at this date last year.

The new crop of potatoes has about taken possession of the market. Shipments are now coming from all quarters whence early consignments are usually received.

Eggs—Constant arrivals from the east keep prices down. They are quotable at 16@17½c per dozen for California and 16@17½c for eastern.

Acquittal of Short.

NEW YORK, May 6.—This forenoon, when the jury trying Richard Short for stabbing Captain Phelan retired, the lobbies of the court house remained thronged with people. The jury having made known that an agreement had been reached, were brought into the court and asked what their verdict was, "not guilty," answered the foreman. Short's friends set up a tremendous shout, but were quickly quieted by the officer.

The judge frowned in indignation and amazement at the verdict, and said: "Gentlemen, I am astonished at your verdict. You are discharged from all further service on this panel."

"I move for the discharge of the prisoner," said counsellor Brook.

"Granted," said the court, in a manner that seemed to show that his honor was anxious to get rid of such extraordinary business.

WINNIPEG, April 29.—The Hudson's Bay Company has contributed the handsome sum of $2500 to the fund for the relief of the families of the Winnipeg volunteers who have gone to the front.

A farewell service was held in the lecture room of Knox Church last evening, on the occasion of the pastor, Rev, Rev. D. M. Gordon's leaving the congregation temporarily to go to the front as chaplain of Ninetieth battalion.

TORONTO, April 29.—The Mail this morning reiterates its charges that the Globe and its agents are supplied with news by Jackson, a member of Riel's rebellious government, and that it has been purveying Riel's information and pandering to the purposes of treasonable men.

The Hamilton Spectator says this whole sad affair must be sifted to the bottom.

The Globe replies that those satellites have had a great deal to say of late about some person named Jackson, with whom they appear to be well acquainted, and of whom it never heard till they mentioned him.

The Mail's Ottawa correspondent says that Gen. Middleton has not received any instructions to treat with Riel, as a Winnipeg dispatch to the Globe intimates.

WINNIPEG, April 28.—The total force now in the Northwest, including mounted police, is over 5,000, and with those engaged in the transport service would make in round numbers 5,500 men and about 2,000 horses.

Mayor Hamilton is again endeavoring to have the Winnipeg Guards reorganized as a battalion in the active militia in view of the fact that all the troops have gone to the front.

OTTAWA, April 29.—Mr. Courtney, deputy minister of finance, leaves for England next week to endeavor to make arrangements to float another loan of about fifty millions, required by the 1st of July to meet maturing loans and present necessities.

Prof. Cherriman, government insurance inspector, has resigned. His resignation takes effect on the 1st of August. Ill health is the alleged cause, but his disagreement with Tilley's insurance bill is the suspected cause.

GUELPH, April 28.—The Guelph patent barrel factory was totally destroyed by fire to-day. The building was owned by Dr. Cowan.

BAYSVILLE, April 28.—Edward Goldie's dwelling and store at Dwight were destroyed by fire on Friday evening last. The goods and furniture were chiefly saved; said to be insured.

MONTREAL, April 28.—Colonel Ouimet has instituted a suit against the Montreal Times for $50,000 damages for alleged libel. The Times republished an article from the Toronto News containing serious charges against the officers and men of the 65th in an interview with Sergeant Nelson.

WINNIPEG, April 28.—Dr. Ferguson to-day received a telegram giving fuller particulars regarding the death of his son. The information was obtained by Mr. George Johnson, of the C. P. R. telegraph service, who was a close companion of young Ferguson, and reads as follows:—"At the time Ferguson was shot, No. 1 company was in the engagement at the very front, adjacent to "C" company of the Toronto School of Infantry, on the right flank and in front of the gully, where the hottest of the fight was. A bullet entered his left side below the heart, passing through his body and killing him almost instantaneously, his last and only words being 'I'm struck.' He was buried with military honors on Saturday the 28th. Sergeant Tom Mitchell was standing beside him at the moment he was killed and furnished the particulars."

MONTREAL, April 29.—The ice in the St. Lawrence above here moved yesterday morning, causing an immediate subsidence of the water and removing all fears of further disaster. By noon the water at Point St. Charles had receded four feet. It is impossible yet to estimate the losses, but they will be very heavy.

E., has completed the subdividing and marking of the corner posts of this valuable estate, and the property will soon be placed upon the market at private sale on exceptionally favorable terms; a most advantageous view of the land, together with the adjoining estates, Swan Lake and Victoria can be had from Lake Hill heights which are easy of access; prices of each plot of about five acres will be given upon application after the 30th April. DIRECTORS ANNUAL REPORT.

GENTLEMEN,—In presenting our Report for 1884, we have to inform you that both the Hospital as well as the Convalescent Home, has been during the year nearly always as full as the accommodations would permit, and at times during the winter every available space was occupied, the large additions to our population both from foreign as well as provincial, is taxing our space and resources to the utmost limit, and provision must soon be made for greater accommodations and more funds, if the institution is to be kept pace with the growing requirements.

Since the last annual meeting Mr. Peter Haack, who had filled the office of Steward, was recommended to resign, and on 3rd September, Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson were temporally appointed as Steward and Matron, and on Oct. 1st their appointments were confirmed.

The Directors have during the past year made enquiries for the purpose of accepting the proposal made by H. C. Beeton, Esq., the Provincial agent in England, towards erecting a modern Hospital, but have found great difficulty in obtaining suitable grounds in or near the City, the present location being considered not entirely suitable, the question being of moment will be a subject for the consideration of the new Board of Directors.

The Hospital has been kept in efficient condition, and the visiting Surgeon has been attentive and active in his duties.

The report of the Treasurer which accompanies this, will show that although economy has been practiced, that the increased sickness consequent upon the growth of the City shows conclusively that more funds will be required for use of the next year, to keep the institution up to its present excellent standard.

The Medical Officer has attended and dispensed medicines to about 300 in and out patients, showing that much good work has been achieved.

On 31st December the Board of Directors met with a severe loss in the death of the late Peter McQuade, a good co-worker who was always ready to give time and assistance. The Government appointed Mr. T. Lubbe to fill the vacancy.

The Directors are of opinion that the contract system for the supply of one year for groceries, beef and coal should be adopted.

The Directors beg to thank the Vancouver Coal Company and Messrs. Dunsmuir for their generous donations of coal, and to many ladies and gentlemen for their support of the institution.

M. W. T. DRAKE, President. JOSHUA DAVIES, Hon. Secretary.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 14th, 1885.

To the Board of Directors of the Royal Hospital :—.

GENTLEMEN,—I beg leave to submit the following report of the Royal Hospital for the past year, commencing March 1st, 1884, and ending Feb. 28th, 1885.

One hundred and forty-eight (148) patients have been admitted into the Hospital during this period, rather more than this number have been treated as out patients. Fifteen (15) deaths have occurred from the following causes:

From Disease of Bladder,	2	From Consumption,	2
" Cancer of Stomach,	1	" Disease of Brain,	3
" Disease of Heart,	4	" " of Liver,	1
" Typhoid Fever;	2

The construction of a Hospital more suitable to the wants of the Province is urgently needed. If the Pavilion plan be adopted buildings sufficient for the present could be erected at a cost of about $12,000, other wards to be added from time to time as they become necessary.

I have to thank my brother practitioners for assistance rendered to me during the past year, in the treatment of patients.

Mr. Jamieson, the Steward, and those under him, have performed their duties during the past year to my entire satisfaction.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen, your obedient servant,

JNO. C. DAVIE, M. D.,
Visiting Surgeon to Royal Hospital.

ROYAL HOSPITAL, TREASURER'S REPORT.

In submitting the accounts for the past year the Treasurer begs to point out the excess of expenditure over current income, by which the funds brought forward at March, 1884, have been reduced by $743.91.

The cost of maintaining the Convalescent Home as an adjunct of the Hospital involves a considerable addition to the outlay from the funds at the disposal of the Board, and it will be observed that the Government grant this year is $5,000 only, as against $5,400 the previous year.

A more liberal support from the public is thus imperative, and it is hoped that this will be generally recognized in the future.

Mr. Thos. Russell has kindly audited the accounts, (as usual without fee) and certified them to be correct. March, 1885. WM. C. WARD, Treasurer.
